Frontendend Developer

Reports to: Technical Leader
Main interaction with: Frontend Developers, QA, Scrum Master, Director of Development.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Goal

- Responsible for implementing visual elements that users see and interact with in a web application.

Technical

- Magento Theme development and customization.
- Analyze, design, code, debug, test & document front-end implementations for e-commerce applications.
- Write well-engineered source code that complies with accepted web standards.
- Front-End development of highly complex e-commerce functionalities.
- Build and test for cross-browser and cross-platform compatibility.
- Implement and debug beautiful and complex e-commerce designs.
- Implement Progressive Web Applications (PWA) and Headless Commerce
- Work with the Technical Leaders and Technical Director to identify and implement better front-end development processes.
- Participate in technical client meetings when required.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Excellent knowledge of Markup (HTML/CSS)Competent with Javascript (ES6, KnockoutJS, RequireJS, jQuery, Grunt/Gulp/Webpack).
- Understanding of PHP (Twig templating, PHTML templating).
- Firm grasp of Git-based source control.
- Experience working with agile methodologies, such as Scrum and Kanban.
- Understanding of Magento 2 Theme build principals will be a plus.

- Experience with other E-Commerce systems like openCart / osCommerce / Shopify / BigCommerce is beneficial.
- Experience working with cross-functional teams in other locations and time zones.
- Experience working with any CRM or project management software (Assembla, Zendesk, Salesforce, LiquidPlanner, Jira, Axosoft, 10k Feet, etc)
- Strong written and verbal communications skills.
- Excellent attention to detail.
- Outstanding lateral thinking abilities.
- Ability to work independently and productively, but also to work well in a collegial, team atmosphere.
- Demonstrated ability to work with all levels of management and across multiple functional areas.
- Strong research skills to figure out answers to questions you don't already know, sometimes on the fly.
- Attention to detail and ability to stay organized in a fast moving environment.
- Strong ability to multitask, set priorities and meet strict deadlines.
- Ability to be personable and approachable both with clients and with coworkers.
- A passion for working with people to help them succeed/grow, while building strong and long-lasting relationships with them.